STRENGTHS

Art & Female portraits

As the face being the hardest thing to draw in human body I find a challenge and beauty to draw female portraits.

Design

Graphic design, DTP, Logo design, Web design, User Interface, User Experience, Product design, Architectural design... Being in different design fields helped me develop my skill in different ways and ultimately become an overall good designer

PROFILE

UI | UX Designer and full-stack developer with interests in immersive computing and emerging technologies with a background in graphic, web, UX/UI and marketing design. Able to take ideas from concept to mainframe to prototype to production.Throughout my time working within various design roles from agency, in-house, startup and freelance positions, I have discovered my love for UX/UI and product design in particular and am keen to grow and develop my career within these specialisms.I'm also self-learning coding and development on the side of my UX/UI design work and am going through TypeScript currently.
